

Email, Text, Cell or Work Number

A resident or business may prefer to receive notifications through another method such as email, text message, cell or work number. There is no cost from the City to register your cell phone, email or text addresses. However, your service provider may charge you in accordance with your individual calling, data, or text plan.